COTTON MARKETS.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, October 5.—Futures opened steady; October, 10.76; December, 10.95; January, 11.06; March, 11.20; May, 11.34; July, 11.44.

The market opened steady at an advance of 3 to 4 points, and sold about 8 to 8 points higher during the early trading on covering of shorts, trade buying and some scattered demand inspired by apprehensions of unfavorable weather.

Liverpool futures were lower than day, but the relative firmness of the English market and interest in the cotton market helped the early advance here, and January contracts sold at 11.11, or about 32 points above the recent low.

Estimated receipts for the week, 435,000 bales; for the month, 1,480,000 bales; against 424,000 last week and 1,480,000 last month.
